

AI Rollins Baseball Complex

Rollins Park is a 55 acre youth baseball facility featuring: five baseball fields, walking path, playground area, fishing pond, and picnic pavilions. The park was dedicated in 1988 and named in honor of Albert Rollins, a longtime city administrator and a great advocate for parks and recreation. The park officially opened for play in 1989.

Location

Threadmill Road
Dalton, GA 30720

Reservation/Rental

Ball fields, playgrounds and picnic shelter.

Directions to facility

Hours of Operation